

MIKAEL AXELSSON

Mikael started his career as an analyst at Merrill Lynch Investment Banking in London. In 2004, he moved back to his native Sweden, heading up E*TRADE's push into structured products in the Nordic countries in co-operation with Merrill Lynch. In 2007, he founded and became CEO of Oak Capital, which by the time of his departure was a leading distributor of structured products in Sweden, Norway and Finland. Mikael joined Garantium in 2010 to oversee and expand the company's international operation. He was promoted to Deputy CEO in 2012 and took over as CEO in 2015. Mikael holds an MSc in Economics and Business Administration from the Stockholm School of Economics.
