

DJ STOXX® Index Information

DJ STOXX® Indices serve both as benchmarks to evaluate the performance of securities listed worldwide and as underlyings of the most liquid European derivatives and exchange traded funds. Real-time data of the current 453 Dow Jones STOXX® Indices are distributed exclusively by Deutsche Börse AG's Market Data & Analytics within the information product DJ STOXX® Indices.

You can obtain the DJ STOXX® Indices data directly from information providers (distributors). In order to disseminate the data contained in the DJ STOXX® Indices information product electronically, a Market Data Dissemination Agreement must be concluded with Deutsche Börse AG.

A list of distributors cooperating with Deutsche Börse is displayed on our homepage at:
www.deutsche-boerse.com/mda > Real-time Market Data > Distributor List.

Deutsche Börse's Market Data Dissemination Agreement may be viewed at:
www.deutsche-boerse.com/mda > Real-time Market Data > Agreements.

Market Data & Analytics is a competent partner for creating, disseminating and marketing independent high-quality information that documents the developments on the international markets. The product portfolio comprises real-time information on the relevant spot markets and derivatives markets, such as Eurex® and Xetra®, as well as customer-tailored services, such as the calculation of Customized Indices and indicative Net Asset Values (iNAV®).

You will find descriptions of all the information products provided by Deutsche Börse on the Internet at:
www.deutsche-boerse.com/mda > Real-time Market Data.
