Methodology

The index universe is defined by the US stocks from the three following indices: STOXX Global Broad Infrastructure, STOXX Global Extended Infrastructure 100 and STOXX Global Infrastructure Suppliers 50. Companies that do not fulfill the liquidity requirements (three-month average daily trading value of more than 10 million US dollars) and generate less than 75% of their revenues in the USA are excluded, while all remaining stocks are included in the index and weighted according to their historical twelve-month dividend yield, with a cap of 10% per component.

The detailed methodology including the calculation formula can be found in our rulebooks: www.stoxx.com/rulebooks

BACKTESTED PERFORMANCE

This document contains index performance data based on backtesting, i.e. calculations of how the index might have performed prior to launch if it had existed using the same index methodology and based on historical constituents. Backtested performance information is purely hypothetical and is provided in this document solely for information purposes. Backtested performance does not represent actual performance and should not be interpreted as an indication of actual performance.

CUSTOMIZATION

The index can be used as a basis for the definition of STOXX® Customized Indices, which can be tailored to specific client or mandate needs. STOXX offers customization in almost unlimited forms for example in terms of component selection, weighting schemes and personalized calculation methodologies.
