Methodology

The parent index is the STOXX Global 1800. Liquidity filters exclude companies with less than 8 million EUR 3-month Average Daily Traded Volume (ADTV) ensuring replicability. The eligible companies are ranked based on the sum of the z-scores of four profitability metrics, in each industry, and the top 50%, in each industry, are eligible for selection. All remaining companies are ranked based on their volatility; the top 50% of companies with the lowest volatility proceed to the final step. Finally, 30 companies with the highest dividend yields are selected.

The index is weighted by the inverse of the selected stock's volatility. The index composition is reviewed quarterly.

The detailed methodology including the calculation formula can be found in our rulebooks: www.stoxx.com/rulebooks

BACKTESTED PERFORMANCE

This document contains index performance data based on backtesting, i.e. calculations of how the index might have performed prior to launch if it had existed using the same index methodology and based on historical constituents. Backtested performance information is purely hypothetical and is provided in this document solely for information purposes. Backtested performance does not represent actual performance and should not be interpreted as an indication of actual performance.

CUSTOMIZATION

The index can be used as a basis for the definition of STOXX® Customized Indices, which can be tailored to specific client or mandate needs. STOXX offers customization in almost unlimited forms for example in terms of component selection, weighting schemes and personalized calculation methodologies.

³ Net dividend yield is calculated as net return index return minus price index return
