

Zug, January 6th, 2021

Final Reminder - Discontinuation of legacy daily report format for STOXX Equity Indices

Dear Sir and Madam,

STOXX Ltd., the operator of Qontigo's index business and a global provider of innovative and tradable index concepts, reminds that following the implementation of Daily Equity Indices reports (that allow permissioning based on licensing of third-Party Data) on September 21st, 2020, the production of the Daily Equity Indices reports in the legacy format are planned to be decommissioned on January 29th, 2021.

Daily Equity Indices Reports valid since September 21st, 2020

- components_P000_<index symbol in lower cases>.csv
- components_P001_<index symbol in lower cases>.csv
- closecomposition_<index symbol in lower cases>.csv
- opencomposition_<index symbol in lower cases>.csv

Daily Equity Indices reports scheduled to be decommissioned on January 29th, 2021

- close_<index symbol in lower cases>.csv
- open_<index symbol in lower cases>.csv

Further details regarding the reports are available in the STOXX File Guide

https://www.stoxx.com/documents/stoxxnet/Documents/Resources/Technical%20Documentation/STOXX\_files\_guide.pdf

The previous announcements related to the file format changes and its implementation are available under the following link: <https://www.stoxx.com/systems-it>

For more information on the STOXX indices, please visit www.stoxx.com