ECPI Indices – Go Live of Parallel Run for ECPI Index Report distributed on STOXX Index Data Distribution System

Dear Customer,

STOXX Ltd., the operator of the ISS STOXX index business and a global provider of innovative and tradable index concepts, announces today the go-live of the parallel run for ECPI Index Reports distributed on STOXX Index Data Distribution System.

As communicated in the Technical Information published on March 30th, 2026, STOXX Ltd. is migrating the distribution of ECPI index data to the STOXX Index Data Distribution System.

As of May 4th, 2026, STOXX web site www.stoxx.com is running in parallel with ECPI web site and contains all required information about ECPI indices such as:

- Dedicated Index web pages for all ECPI Indices, with restricted access to ECPI Index Licensees – you can use the search function or also available under Index Resources >> Index Data >> General >> Indices
- ECPI Indices referenced in the file Vendor Code Sheet, available under Index Resources >> Index Data >> General >> Data vendor codes
- ECPI Index Methodologies and ECPI Index Calculation Guide, available on each dedicated index web page but also under Index Resources >> Index Data >> Methodologies >> Rulebooks
- ECPI Index Factsheets available on each dedicated index web pages but also under Index Resources >> Index Data >> General >> Factsheets & Components – Filter to apply is: "ESG & Sustainability" or "Bond"
- ECPI Index Benchmark Statements and respective ESG Reports, available on each dedicated index web page but also under Index Resources >> Index regulations >> Index regulations

As of May 4th, 2026, and applicable to all ECPI indices, the STOXX Index Data Distribution System is running in parallel with the existing ECPI Index Data Distribution system, allowing ECPI clients to receive ECPI Index Reports simultaneously through both Index Data Distribution systems. As of June 1st, 2026, STOXX Index Data Distribution System will become the official source of ECPI Index Data, and the existing ECPI Index Data Distribution System will be terminated.

During the parallel run period:

- New ECPI Index Reports, as communicated on March 30th, 2026 and available on www.stoxx.com under Index Resources >> Announcements >> Systems & IT, are provided through the STOXX Index Data Distribution System
- ECPI Index Reports will continue to be available through the existing distribution channels
- ECPI Index Methodologies and Calculation remain unchanged and are available on www.stoxx.com on each dedicated index web page

The parallel run is intended to enable clients to test, validate, and adapt their internal systems ahead of the full migration effective June 1st, 2026. As of May 21st, 2026 STOXX will confirm to ECPI Clients the successful parallel run and the possibility for ECPI Clients to start retrieving ECPI Index Data from STOXX New Index Data Distribution System from that date, allowing ECPI clients to smoothly transition before the official go-live date scheduled on June 1st, 2026.
