

IAN WEBSTER

CHIEF OF STAFF & HEAD OF CORPORATE STRATEGY

Ian's responsibilities include the pursuit of corporate-development opportunities and helping the business to scale as Axioma's growth continues to accelerate. Webster was previously Chief Operating Officer of Axioma since May 2016.

Webster joined Axioma as Managing Director, EMEA in 2011, leading the company's successful expansion in Europe and adjacent geographic markets, as well as the development of Axioma's global indexing business. He was previously Global Head of Data Management and Corporate Actions at UBS Global Asset Management since 2008. Before UBS, Webster was Global Head of Market Data at Barclays Global Investors (BGI).

From 1998 to 2005, Webster was on the vendor side as Vice President of Data Strategy at Barra. Earlier in his career he was a finance researcher at Reuters, later joining Edinburgh Financial Publishing, which was acquired by Barra.
