

SHILA WATTAMWAR

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, CLIENT SERVICES (INDEXES & PARTNERSHIPS) AT SUSTAINALYTICS

Shila Wattamwar oversees Sustainalytics' Client Relations in the United States. She is a trusted and experienced advisor that works closely with Sustainalytics' platinum-level US and global clients to help them integrate ESG and corporate governance research and data into their investment processes.

Shila is the primary relationship manager for Morningstar, supporting them on integrating Sustainalytics' data into their various research platforms. She also plays an instrumental role in the enhancement and development of Sustainalytics' strategic relationships with our passive investment clients as well as Factset and Bloomberg. Outside of her work at Sustainalytics, Shila is part of the Agenda Committee for the SRI Conference.

She helps shape the content for the SRI Annual Conference, which attracts investors, corporates and policymakers from across the US. Shila has over 10 years of experience in business development within the index industry. Prior to joining Sustainalytics she worked for FTSE Group as well as Russell Investments.
