

STOXX® Indices

With the Information Product STOXX® Indices, Market Data & Analytics offers comprehensive real-time data of important European benchmarks. The STOXX® Indices are known and respected far beyond European borders and form the basis for exchange-based and OTC products.

Real-time price data of the index families:

■ STOXX® Benchmark Indices

Track the performance of broad market regions and segments.

■ STOXX® Blue Chip Indices

Constituents are stocks of the supersector leaders with the highest free float market capitalisation.

■ STOXX® Select Dividend Indices

Offer investors the ideal tool to track high-dividend-yielding companies and to participate in their respective dividend payouts.

■ STOXX® Size Indices

Give investors access to small, mid and large cap segments.

■ STOXX® Sector Indices

Using the ICB - Industry Classification Benchmark, companies are categorised by their primary source of revenue.

■ STOXX® Style Indices

Classify companies by growth and value characteristics.

■ STOXX® Optimised Indices

Offer investors an additional tool to invest in STOXX indices with a higher degree of liquidity for both long and short investments.

■ STOXX® Strategy Indices

Provide investors with access to innovative investment strategies and asset classes.

■ STOXX® Theme Indices

Allow investors to access important asset classes such as private equity or to invest in Initial Public Offerings (IPOs).

■ STOXX® ESG Indices

The STOXX Environmental, Social, Governance indices (ESG) track the performance of companies which act responsibly in terms of economical, environmental, social and moral directives.

Market Data Dissemination

In order to disseminate the STOXX® Indices Information Product electronically, a Market Data Dissemination Agreement must be concluded with Deutsche Börse AG.

Data Procurement

You can obtain the market data either directly via the CEF® Core data feed, or indirectly via information providers (vendors). Please find a list of respective vendors on the Internet:
