

Jun. 04, 2010

HeidelbergCement Replaces Salzgitter in DAX

Deutsche Börse reviews index composition/Changes are effective as of 21 June 2010
On Friday, Deutsche Börse has decided on changes in its equity indices: HeidelbergCement will be included in DAX; and will replace Salzgitter. The inclusion was triggered by the so-called Fast Entry rule. The company ranked 22nd both in terms of market capitalization and stock-exchange turnover. Salzgitter will be included in MDAX;. In addition Kabel Deutschland and Brenntag will replace Pfeiderer and MLP in MDAX.Pfeiderer, MLP as well as Tom Tailor will be included in SDAX;. VBH, Villeroy & Boch and Dyckerhoff will leave the index accordingly.All changes will take effect on 21 June 2010. DAX;, MDAX; and SDAX; are registered trademarks of Deutsche Börse AG.

For more information on the STOXX indices, please visit www.qontigo.com